

Donor Privacy Policy

The World Environment Center is committed to protecting the privacy of its members, partners and donors. We keep personal and payment information secure and use it only in accordance with the terms of this policy.

WEC members, partners and donors can be confident that:

- Personal information will be handled safely and securely. Only authorized employees who have been trained in the proper handling of partner information will have access to this information.
- WEC will not sell, rent or share personal or contact information with any other individuals or organizations without express consent.
- Each payment will receive appropriate acknowledgment of receipt.
- Contact information will be used only to update members on WEC activities and initiatives.
- All questions or concerns expressed by members and partners will receive prompt, truthful and forthright answers.
- WEC complies with the regulations of the Internal Revenue Service and all laws pertaining to 501 (c) (3) organizations.